JCSU

History

In 1867, Reverend S. C. Alexander and the Reverend W. L. Miller saw the need to establish an institution to educate freedmen in one section of the South and as a result, plans were devised to secure the institution. The movement for the school was formally inaugurated on April 7, 1867, at a meeting where the two ministers were elected as teachers. The first eight acres of land were donated by a wealthy Charlottean, Colonel W.R. Myers. In 1924, the institution was recognized by the North Carolina State Board Of Education as a four -year college .

In 1932, the University's charter was amended which provided the admission of women to the senior division which made the University partially coeducational. In 1941, the University partially coeducational. In 1944, Johnson C. Smith University joined the United Negro College Fund. Between 1955 and 1968 was a time of expansion of the physical plant and enrichment of curriculum. Seven new buildings were erected during this period. Since 1968 the structures that have been renovated are: Wilbert Greenfield Hall, Lionel H. Newsom Humanities Building, Robert L. Albright Honors College and the Irwin Belk Complex.

The mission of Johnson C. Smith University is to provide an outstanding education for a diverse group of talented and highly motivated students from various ethnic, socioeconomic, and geographical backgrounds. Johnson C. Smith offers a liberal education in conjunction with concentrated study in specialized fields in preparation for advanced study and specific careers. To ensure the integrity and stability of its status and the perpetuation its legacy, Johnson C. Smith University has firm resolve to maintain the fiscal and human resources requisite to be a truly distinctive institution--a hallmark of excellence in its students, faculty, staff, administrators, academic and other programs, facilities, operations, and environment.

Welcome to

Johnson C. Smith University

Purpose and Mission

The mission of JCSU is to provide an outstanding education, for a diverse group of talented and highly motivated students from various ethnic, socioeconomic, and geographical backgrounds. The university offers a liberal education in conjunction with the concentrated study specialized fields, in preparation for advanced study and specific careers.

The university endeavors to produce graduates who are able to communicate effectively, think critically, learn independently as well as collaboratively, and demonstrate competence in their chosen fields. Further, it provides an environment in which students can fulfill their physical, cultural spiritual, and other personal needs through which they can develop a compelling sense of social and civic responsibility for leadership and service in a dynamic, multicultural society.

Likewise, the university embraces its responsibility to provide leadership, service, and a lifelong learning to the larger community.

Regarding teaching effectiveness as paramount in its educational enterprise, JCSU has a commitment to the recruitment and retention of outstanding faculty. To this end, the university promotes faculty development, encourages faculty involvement in research and other creative activities, and endorses principles of academic freedom.

To ensure the integrity and stability of its status and the perpetuation of its rich legacy, Johnson C. Smith University has a firm resolve to maintain the fiscal and human resources requisite to be a truly distinctive institutional hallmark of excellence in its students, faculty, staff, administrators, academic and other programs, facilities, operations, and environment.

Alma Mater

Loyalty Song

I

We love thee Smith, with all our hearts!
To thee we'll e'er be true.
And in the light of truth and right
Hold high the Gold and Blue.

Refrain:

Proudly we hail thy name, our Alma Mater, Old S.U.
Johnson C. Smith, our own! Our hope, our guiding star, our light unfailing!
Pride of our loyal hearts, we'll love and honor thee
our whole life through.
On, ever on! Dear old J.C.S.U.!

II

Fair Smith, where 'er on earth we roam,
Send forth thy constant ray,
And let it beam with steadfast gleam
To lead us o'er life's way.

Words by George Leonard Allen
Music by R. Tate

Well done, Class of 2013!

Congratulations on receiving your diploma from Johnson C. Smith University. All of us – myself, the University's faculty and staff, your families, friends and mentors – are extremely proud of you for overcoming the many challenges you have faced to successfully earn your degree.

I also send you off from our campus with heartfelt good wishes for a happy, successful and impactful future. You and I have a particular connection as many of you began your college career the same year I began my presidency at JCSU – meaning I have been able to help nourish your academic and spiritual growth and watch you develop during your entire college career.

I hope you will put into practice all that you have learned here. Not just the facts and skills related to your career field, but also the values we have instilled in you. With an intellectual framework that will serve you well in today's flattened world and global economy, along with a commitment to integrity and serving the community, I know you will go far.

So go forth and do the old alma mater proud. May your actions always be a reflection of all that you have learned here. And know that you are always welcome here at JCSU.

To paraphrase a Quaker admonition, "Let your life speak."

Sincerely,

Ronald L. Carter, Ph.D.
President

Dr. Ronald L. Carter
13th President

Dedication Mrs. Moya Welch

This yearbook is dedicated to an extremely dependable staff member, Moya Montgomery.

Montgomery is the university cashier and a true lover of Johnson C. Smith University students. She has been employed at the university for 17 yrs, since March 1996. She was only 18 yrs old when she started as the cashier at the university. Mrs. Montgomery is a native of Charlotte, NC. She is married to Carl Montgomery, together they have 2 sons.

Mrs. Montgomery enjoys fellowshiping with the students and her coworkers. Every student has come into contact with her, more times than one, whether in the business office for refund checks, work study, payment for tuition, or in the gym for games and gym parties.

Montgomery knows just about every student by name and ID number. One of her greatest joys is when students that have graduated come back and visit her. She says that is one of the many things that she holds dear to her heart, and deepens her passion for Johnson C. Smith University.

We Love You And Appreciate All That You Do For The University !

Ms. Hanoi Darden

SGA President 2012 -2013

To my fellow Smithites,

It has been a pleasure serving as your student body president. I appreciate the opportunity, lessons learned, and the overall leadership experience. During my tenure as president, myself, as well as my board, have been working diligently reconstructing the student government constitution to include all student organizations for “We Are All SGA” and we all deserve an input on important matters. We have also been working with administration to implement new communication channels to help bridge the communication gap between students and the administration. As a student body, we possess so much power and we need to utilize our resources. As a first step, I encourage all of you to be active within JCSU’s campus and join organizations and take leadership roles.

This journey is one of the greatest in your life and I encourage all of you to enjoy it to the fullest. Be positive, have fun, create memories and everlasting relationships. Continue to take advantage of the resources offered and allow yourself to develop into the best person that you can be.

To my fellow Graduating Seniors,

This is our year! We’ve traveled the 4 year long journey, developed lifelong friendships, overcame obstacles, made history and memories and achieved our goals! Now, we are ready to open the next chapter of our lives and be even greater! Please understand that this is not the end but the beginning of our master plan. We all have a purpose in this world and with determination and belief we can all fulfill our purpose. I sincerely wish every single person much success and happiness.

“Leave your mark where others can only dream on going!”

Best Wishes,
Hanoi L. Darden
President, Student Government Association 2012-2013

Current

Democratic National Convention

While the Democratic National Convention was underway in Charlotte, the University partnered with the Congressional Black Caucus Institute hosted UFuture Summit, A Summit for Young Thinkers. Hosting the interactive forum were activists like Alfre Woodard (right) and Hill Harper with special guests Rep. Bennie Thompson, Rep. James E. Clyburn, Rep. Melvin Watt, Dr. Ronald L. Carter and Jurnee Smollett (right). The event engaged a dialogue about politics with hundreds of students from several institutions.

Events

Mosaic Village

Mosaic Village broke ground on May 15, 2011 at 1635 West Trade St, opening for students on October 4, 2012. The Grand Opening of the Building was featured with the University Band and Choir, and many community and city leaders of Charlotte. The $25 million, 124,000-square-foot mixed-use facility features 80 apartment-style suites on four floors and can accommodate 300 tenants. Each unit is equipped with a washer/dryer, kitchen, dishwasher and den. Every floor also has a common area and inner courtyard.

Mayor Anthony Foxx (above) and Senator Malcolm Graham (left) addressed the community and students, of the benefits the new building will provide to the community and the city of Charlotte.

JCSU HEALTHPLEX

The HealthPlex is a 5,600-square-foot facility that hosts the Applied Health Research Center and Wellness Department. The primary focus of the JCSU HealthPlex is to assist faculty and staff in performing research in the fields of health, sport, and human performance that benefit the University and the surrounding community.

New Science Center

This is the new vision (right) for the new Science Center that is to open in 2014. The building of a new Science Center is a concrete reflection of JCSU's commitment to preparing students for STEM-related fields. JCSU has already earned national recognition by Diverse Issues in Higher Education magazine, which ranked the STEM College 18th in the nation in graduating African Americans in the field of computer and information sciences.

The new Science Center will house four of six newly created education centers including:

- The Center for Renewable Energy
- The Center for Medical Informatics
- The Center for Analytics
- The Center for Bioinformatics

The remaining two centers, The Center for Electronics and Cyber Security and The Center for Robotics, are located in the JCSU Technology Center.

Johnson C. Smith University broke ground on October 25 on the 62,000-square-foot Science Center that will house innovative programs in the College of Science, Technology Engineering and Mathematics (STEM).

Johnson C. Smith University offers 23 degree options for students through one of our three colleges:

*College of Arts and Letters

*College of STEM

(Science, Technology, Engineering and Mathematics)

*College of Professional Studies

A large, energetic crowd of students is shown from the chest up, filling the frame. Many students are holding yellow megaphones and have their arms raised in the air, suggesting a school spirit event or pep assembly. The students are diverse in age and appearance. The background is slightly blurred, showing more students and a yellow wall. The year '2014' is written in large blue letters in the top left, '2015' in large yellow letters in the middle right, and '2016' in large blue letters in the bottom left.

During homecoming, as well as throughout the year, students of JCSU organize and host popular events. This year the Homecoming Vendor Fair, 10:10, Pep-Rally, and the FestiVille were big hits to the current student body and alumni that come back to partake in these activities. These events could not be possible without the hard work of the GBAC and other student and faculty volunteers.

Local designers at the Homecoming fashion show gives student, Jasmine McKoy, a chance to model and reflect the diverse population and interests of the student body.

Miss Samantha Barnes

1st Attendant to Miss Johnson C. Smith University

*Escorted by:
Shawn D. Jackson*

Samantha is very involved on campus. She has served as the women's tennis team. Captain for the past three years. She served as a Senator on the Student Government Hall Councils and serves as the historian for the Minority Association of Pre-Medical Students and as a Student Orientation Leader. Samantha is a lifetime member of the NAACP, active in LSAMP and The Collegiate Sisters of Action. In keeping with her service to community and fulfilling her passion to instill strong values in young women and being a role model to others, Samantha serves as a mentor to young women through the Designers in Training Mentoring Program. Samantha's achievements as a Golden Bull include being a member of Alpha Lambda Delta Freshman Honor Society and The President's List (2009), Women's Tennis Most Valuable Player and Women's Tennis Highest GPA Average and CIAA Rookie of the Year (2009-2010), CIAA First Team All-Conference (2010-2011), Smith Institute for Applied Research Citation for Excellence (2011), and Sigma Tau Delta English Honor Society (2012).

Miss Alexa Brown

2nd Attendant to Miss Johnson C. Smith University

Escorted by

Robert Emerson Williams II

Alexa is very family oriented and desires to always make her family proud. Throughout her life she has been involved in many things such as cheerleading, playing the piano, dancing etc. Even with all of the extra-curricular activities she does, she has never put education on the back burner. Being that both of her parents are educators she knew that education has and will always be the key to success. Alexa decide to further her education here at Johnson C. Smith University in the fall of 2009. Alexa has been on the dean's list her entire time here at Smith. Not only is she a cheerleader but she is a part of Delta Mu Delta National Honors Society and Alpha Lambda Delta National Honors Society. She was recognized for holding the highest GPA on the Johnson C. Smith University cheerleading team for the season of 2010-2011. Alexa was also named All-CIAA cheerleader 2011-2012.

MISS JOHNSON C. SMITH UNIVERSITY MISS YOLANDA BAPB 2012-2013

Yolanda Bapb visited Johnson C. Smith University on a college tour, she knew she would thrive amongst her peers while attending Johnson C. Smith. She had the honor of being a member of the class by being a member of the class from 2009-2010. Also she was a member of the Purple and Gold 2010-2011 and a member of Omega Psi Phi Fraternity, Inc. and the Ira B. Johnson Scholarship. She is also a part of the National Association of Black College Students and a member of Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority, Inc. where she serves as the National Membership Chairman.

Yolanda Bapb has a desire to help others and to remain active in her community. Every year she is a member of the Greater Beaufort County Chamber of Commerce, NY where she is the Community Leader and Activity Specialist. While holding this position, Yolanda Bapb created the Future Focus program that was towards 5-8th graders to gain enthusiasm for their future goals and college readiness.

While attending Johnson C. Smith University, many doors of opportunities were opened for her. Through the Office of Career Development, Yolanda was able to become employed at the Above and Beyond Student after-school program at Eastway Middle school at in Charlotte, NC.

MR. JOHNSON C. SMITH
UNIVERSITY
MR. MICHAEL BAILEY
2012-2013

Since arriving at Johnson C. Smith University in 2009, Michael has found his passion for helping others. He has served as a Resident Assistant, member of Black Ink Monks, the Political Science Association, Pre-Law Society, and contributing writer for Blank Canvas and The Bull's Eye student newspaper.

Michael has been a principle organizer for the Political Science Association's Amendment One Forum, Candidates Forum, Presidential Debate Watch Parties, and freshmen voter registration efforts. In his senior year has started the Men of Smith program for minority males to encourage leadership and address mental, physical, spiritual, and societal issues. He has been on the Dean's List since sophomore year. Michael is also a graduate of the 2012 Congressional Black Caucus Political Boot Camp.

Michael has worked for Children's's Defense Fund's Freedom School as a Servant Leader Intern for their afterschool and summer programs and more recently Above and Beyond afterschool program. Involved with the youth of the community, Michael works to instill a belief that being a product of an environment is only a mindset and with hard work and strong faith anything is possible. Michael currently works for Common Cause North Carolina as a Democracy Fellow to promote voter engagement and political awareness amongst minority college students.

The Johnson C. Smith University women's basketball fell 50-46 to Lincoln University of Pennsylvania in the opening round of the 2013 CIAA Tournament on Tuesday evening at the Time Warner Cable Arena. JCSU closes the season with an 8-18 overall record.

Despite trailing 30-24 at halftime, the Golden Bulls outscored Lincoln 22-20 in the second half to keep things close. Several times, JCSU would get within a field goal and even got to within one; but they could never quite get over the hump in the second half.

CI-CI-DOUBLE A!

The Johnson C. Smith University men's basketball team falls 65-63 to Elizabeth City State in the quarterfinals of the 2013 CIAA Tournament held Thursday afternoon at the Time Warner Cable Arena. JCSU concludes the season with a 16-11 overall record. .

This contest remained close throughout the entirety. There were 11 lead changes and 12 times the score was tied. JCSU held a small 24-23 advantage at the end of the first half. The Vikings shot 33% (8-24) from the floor in the opening, while the Golden Bulls connected on 38.5% (10-26) of their shot attempts. Both teams were perfect from the free throw line, but ECSU made three of their six three point attempts to stay in contention. The Golden Bulls ended the year third in the Southern Division, they added four more victories to their overall record from the previous season, and two players earned all-conference honors as well as their first all-rookie selection since 2008.

Student Government Association 2012-2013

The Student Government Association is comprised of Johnson C. Smith University student leaders from all classifications, Within their positions they are the direct spokesperson of the entire student body. They work with all Student Organizations on campus, plan events, Homecoming, Community Service & Outreach and are the direct connection between student life and faculty. Our 2012-2013 Student Government Association ran by President Ms. Hanoi Darden has done an exceptional job in representing the students this academic year in the activities and service events they have put on.

Groove Phi Groove

During the 1960s, the word “groove” was popular among young blacks. Webster’s Dictionary defines the verb “groove” as “to perform deftly or smoothly.” As a noun, “groove” is defined as a “fixed routine in the affairs of life.” Hence, to go against the “groove” means to work against the current establishment, and “grooving” is associated with “socializing or fellowshiping.” These combined definitions form the essence of Groove Phi Groove Social Fellowship, Inc.

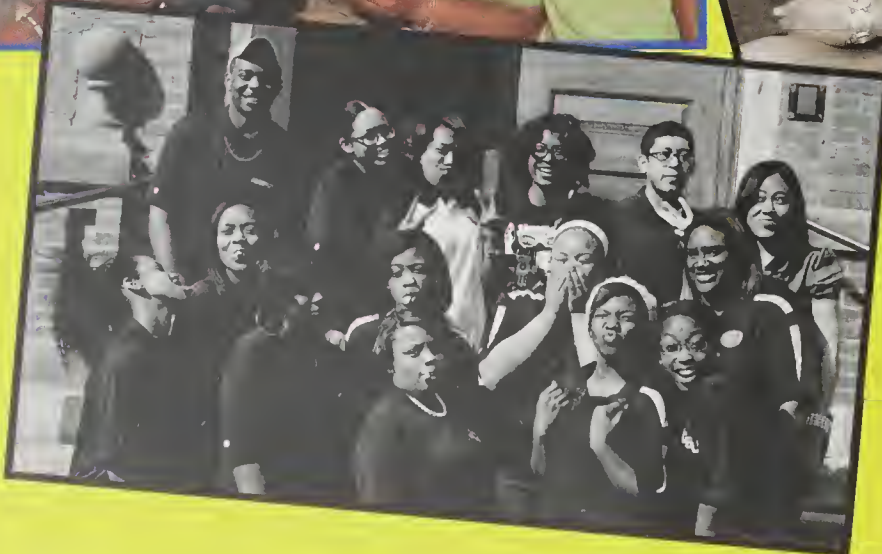

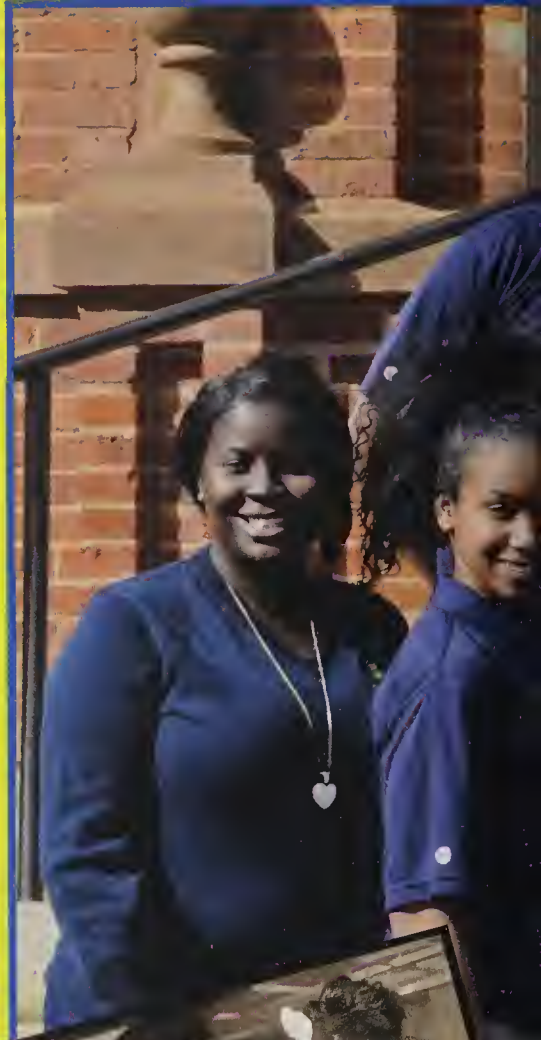

Groove Phi Groove Social Fellowship, Inc. was founded at Morgan State College (now Morgan State University) on October 12, 1962 by fourteen daring, young, black American men who wanted to change the way we think about brotherhood.

Our founders established the Fellowship with the purposes of promoting academic awareness, ethical standards, and unity among men in undergraduate and graduate college programs; creating intelligent and effective leadership; and studying and helping to alleviate the social and economic problems of society to generally improve the world.

Little did our founders know in 1962 that the fruits of their efforts at Morgan State College would evolve into a thriving movement that continues to play an important role in developing and nurturing what we know as Black America

RESIDENCE LIFE

Johnson C. Smith Memorial Hall, built in 1922, accommodated 54 students. It was named for the late Johnson C. Smith of Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania.

Liston Hall, constructed in 1962, is a residence hall. Of modern design, the building will accommodate 144 students. It has two lounges and other facilities adequate for convenient living.

Carter Hall, built in 1896, is a residence hall. The original building was a gift of Miss Laura Carter of Geneva, New York. In 1995, the building was completely modernized on the inside, leaving the outside walls to retain the original architecture.

Other residence Halls include Greenfield Hall (1985), Myers and Sanders Residence Halls (1967), and New Residence Hall (1993) that we know it by as "New Res".

Greek Life...

Alpha Kappa Alpha

Sorority, Incorporated

On January 15, 1908, Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority was founded; becoming the first Greek-lettered organization established by and for black women.

The purpose of Alpha Kappa Alpha is to cultivate & encourage high scholastics and ethical standards; to promote unity and friendship among college women; to study and alleviate problems concerning girls and women in order to improve their social stature; to maintain a progressive interest in college life, and to be of SERVICE to "ALL MANKIND!"

It's a SERIOUS MATTER!

Gamma Delta Chapter

The Gamma Delta Chapter of Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority, Inc was chartered on the campus of Johnson C. Smith University on February 25, 1944 by 16 lovely ladies in the bottom of Duke Hall. Continuing the legacy of their charter members; 29 young women joined Gamma Delta's history as the "Heroic Return" Fall of 2011.

From the initials of the Greek phrase meaning, "friendships is essential to the soul", the name Omega Psi Phi was derived from. That phrase was selected as the motto.

Delta Sigma Theta Sorority Incorporated

The Gamma Lambda Chapter of Delta Sigma Theta Sorority Incorporated was chartered on the campus of Johnson C. Smith University on November 23, 1943. Using the guidance of the twenty-two courageous founders, ten collegiate women answered the call to continue the legacy of excellence by being the first sorority established at this institution.

The Gamma Lambda Chapter continues to strive for excellence using the sorority's core principles; sisterhood, scholarship and service.

Gamma Lambda Chapter

Their mission is to inspire leadership on the college campus by means of leading by example. The chapter members achieve this by creating programming centered around the Five Point Programmatic Thrust: Economic Development, Educational Development, Physical and Mental Awareness, International Awareness and Involvement and Political Awareness and Involvement. The Gamma Lambda Chapter takes pride in its longevity and rich history of academic excellence and active public service.

Phi Beta Sigma

Fraternity, Incorporated

Phi Beta Sigma Fraternity was founded at Howard University in Washington, D.C., January 9, 1914, by three young African-American male students. The Founders, Honorable A. Langston Taylor, Honorable Leonard F. Morse, and Honorable Charles I. Brown, wanted to organize a Greek letter fraternity that would truly exemplify the ideals of brotherhood, scholarship, and service.

Phi Beta Sigma prides itself on the motto
"culture for service, service for humanity"

FARWELL TO THE GRADUATING CLASS OF 2013!!!!

Dear TT, Whitney, & Alex,
You girls mean the world to me and I'm so happy that you are apart of my life. I'm so proud of you all and wish you the best after graduation. No matter where we go in life, you 3 will always be my sisters and have a place in my heart. I enjoy every minute we spend together through the good times and bad, and y'all ALWAYS down to ride. I love y'all so much and good luck !!
-Love, Angelique

Dear TT, Whitney & Alex,
Not so often in life you meet great people & when you do, you want to keep them forever.
Meeting you ladies this year has made me closer to each one of you. Showing me things and being big sisters to me I will never forget those times. Sad to see you leave but I just wish you ladies the best in life. Remember, no matter how hard the situation
may be keep God first.

Keena,
its 2013, hard to believe you are not that fat little sleepy baby that loved to nap! You have accomplished so much, you are truly on your way!

Yes, you are your Mother's daughter, very spoiled, very aware, very independent and very determined. You like what you like, and manage to somehow get it. You are my "Bootz"
Your family, Granny, PawPaw, Uncle Booley, TeeTee, me and Dad, have always saw to it that you always had what you wanted. But Granny lifted you up nightly in prayer until the day her prayers could be heard no more. You were her 1st Granddaughter and she loved you dearly. She is smiling today, very proud of you.

Dad and I pray only the best for you, we want you to pause, seek God, then move. Without God you are nothing. BUT with HIM you are EVERYTHING, never ever let anyone make you believe different.

Be that butterfly, fly ever so beautiful into the sky....The entire world is waiting!
The Fam!

Graduation is a meaningful and memorable part of our lives. You set your goals and went after them. Not only did you do just enough to get by, you went above and beyond and took things to the next level. As you enter the real world I have no doubt that you will succeed in whatever you decide to do. You've grown into a beautiful, intelligent and responsible young lady and I am so proud of you. Congratulations and love always.....Mom

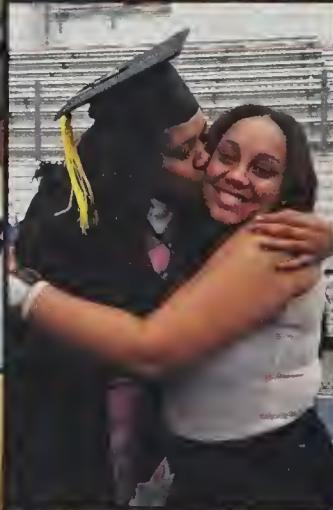

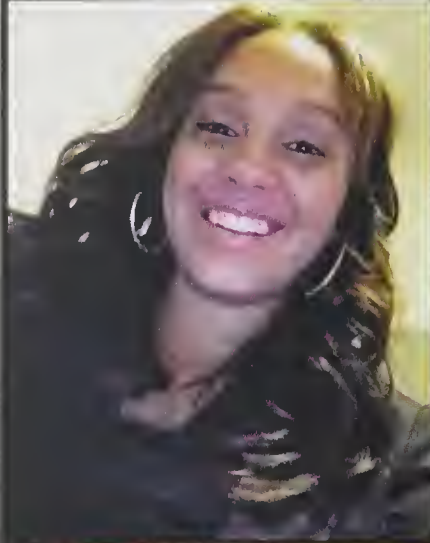

Congratulations sis.....love you and proud to call you our sister.....Love Jamil, Rashad and Tahj

You inspire me to want to go to college after I graduate high school next year.....Jamil

Love you and proud to call u my stepdaughter.....much success.....Jay

Always take God first and remember "I can do all things through Christ which strengthens me"

Congratulations Missy! I am so proud of you! Mom-Mom

Lenique Terencia Harris

Our sparkle of joy, we are so proud of the woman that you've blossomed to be and this is yet another milestone to celebrate. Being able to recognize your accomplishments have made us extremely proud and we know that mommy would be amazed to see her youngest doing so well. You come from a line of strong virtuous women so there is no doubt in our minds that once you leave the walls of your soon to be Alma Mater that you'll be a huge contributor to society. As we reflect on your journey, you have always been an inquisitive and focused young lady who always had the ability to learn quickly and serve as a leader to your peers. As you navigate through life remember to always put God first and know that our love and support is ceaseless. No matter how old you get you will always be our Miss Piggy, hugs and kisses from your sisters and the rest of the family!!

Den Den,

Your Family is very proud of you. You have become a man that believes that all things are possible. You are truly blessed by the man above. You have always put God first and that's why doors will continue to open for you where ever your journey takes you. You are a true Leader, through personal sacrifice, selflessness and confidence and devotion.

Congratulations to you Den Den
We Love you! Your Family

Momma, Daddy, Deanna,
Cherelle, Devaun, Alylissa

Erica Camille Logan

Congratulations Erica,
We are very proud of you and applaud you for your perseverance and tenacity
to make this day possible!
We also thank God for blessing you with inherent wisdom, strength, energy and a foundation of faith.
We are so grateful to have shared this journey with you. Always remember to accept the reality of a situation, but not its permanence.
Love Always,
Mom, Fabrese and the family

We watched you grow from a beautiful baby to a beautiful amazing woman. Your grandmother and Aunt Dot have always told you how important education is. You know she is bubbling over with joy from heaven. You know the love your grandpa has for you. As your grandparents have taught us, and how we continue to teach you is to always put God first in everything you do. Continue to strive to reach your goals. We are so very proud of our 2013 college graduate. We love you so much. Mom and Dad

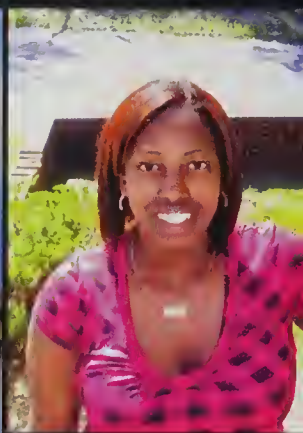

Amber you have made me so proud. You are doing things in life that will get you far and that's a huge deal. Keep up the good work with your beautiful smart self.

Love Always, "Big Sister" Asia

Amber "Ammie" Q. I am so proud of you. You have accomplished so much and I'm excited to see what is next for you to achieve. May God continue to guide and lead you straight to success. You're the next Oprah in my eyes.

Love You, O'Dell Jr

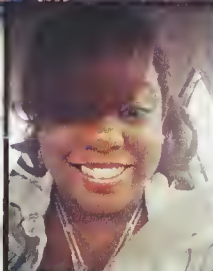

Amber we are so very proud of you; we knew you could do it. We love you. Your Aunts and Uncles and Family

Tyeisha Crutchfield

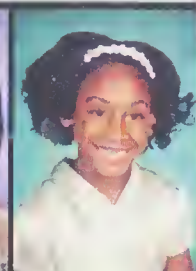

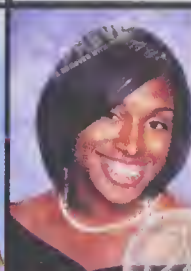

Tyeisha the time has come for you to spread your wings and fly, the sky is the limit. We love you and are so proud of the young woman you have become. Congratulations Love Mom, Mike, Chauntae, Pudda

Success comes from dreaming and believing that you can get through anything if you set your mind to it. Follow your dreams and don't ever give up. When you were around 7, I remember telling you that you may have to drop out of dance class because the cost was too expensive; your response was "All I want to do is dance, D-A-N-C-E, dance." You have been dancing every since. I support you in all you do. I love you! Mommy

Kayle D. Williams

Congratulations Kayle,

There are not enough words to explain how proud we are of you. Your accomplishments are many and the journey was one we have enjoyed and would not trade for anything in the world. You are the sunshine in our lives little princess. As a new chapter opens in your life know that; "You can do all things through Christ who strengthens you." Continue to be the sweet, loving, caring, and the smart young lady you have grown to be. Let no one tell you the sky is the limit when there are footprints on the moon.

Jordan Broome

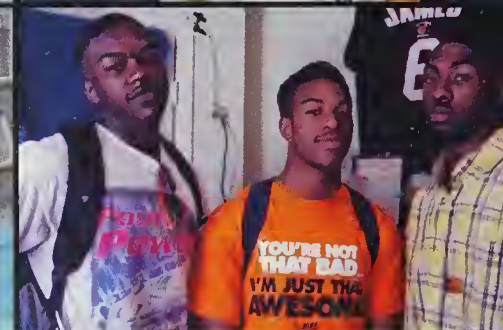

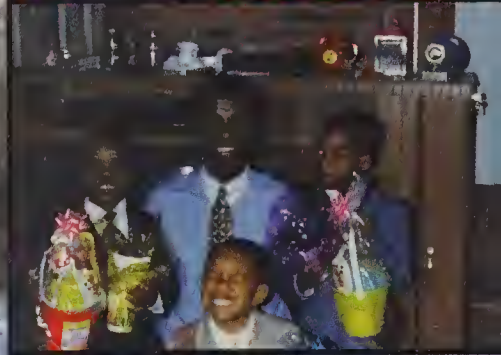

Jordan,
Words alone can't express how exceptionally proud we are of you and the accomplishments and many accolades you have achieved during your college years. Jordan you are our second child to graduate from college and we give God all the praise and honor.

You have just completed another chapter in your life by graduating from college. As one chapter comes to an end another chapter begins. There is nothing you can't achieve.

We encourage you to keep God in the forefront of your life, Prov. 3:5,6 - "Trust in the LORD with all thine heart; and lean not unto thine own understanding. In all thy ways acknowledge him, and he shall direct thy paths."

Alexa Brown

Alexa,
We are so proud of all that you have accomplished and the intelligent, beautiful young woman you have become! You began with the responsibility to clean your room at 2, and now at the age of 22 have grown into a respected, dedicated, and passionate leader. You demonstrate to the fullest what a "bright star" truly is, and you will always be your mom's special star. God has kept you in His hands your entire life – continue to give your life back to God, so He will bless all you accomplish.

Love,
Dad, Heather, Jared, Caleb, and family

Keneasha Johnson

Keneasha.

At birth I knew you were my "DIAMOND." YOU HAVE SHINNED BRIGHT from pre-K all way up until now. You have always been a sweet, considerate, and loving young lady. You're a blessing to us and truly are a gift from God.

Determination, initiative, and persistence are the foundation of success and with tears of joy I'm tremendously proud of you and the beautiful, young woman you have become. Congratulations baby girl on the life you are starting. Continue to strive to fulfill your destiny. I will always love you Keneasha. My lucky charm that's what you are.....Love, Mom

Congratulations Neasha!

You did it! I want you to know how proud of you I am. As I look back over the years, so many memories of you growing up flood my mind. It really only seems like yesterday that we were sending you off, many miles away from home, to start your freshman year, and now you're here...graduation day. May God continue to show you favor, and give you wisdom in all that you do! Much success and much love! From your favorite Auntie

My niece/my little sister,

I still remember the day they brought you home from the hospital you were a little snow bunny. Now, as I watch you succeed into an intelligent woman I am proud and honored to know that I have you as my niece, knowing that you are a representation of the Buckner family. Congratulations!!! School is finally over, but this is just the beginning! Remember only YOU can limit yourself. The sky is not the limit, go farther. With love, Uncle/ big brother

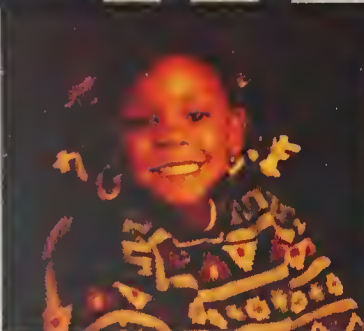

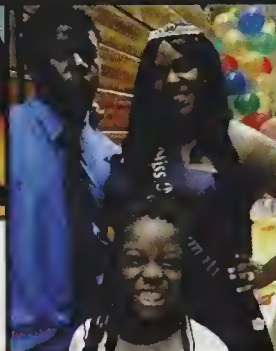

Congratulations Keneasha I am proud of you!

Love, Kim and Nia

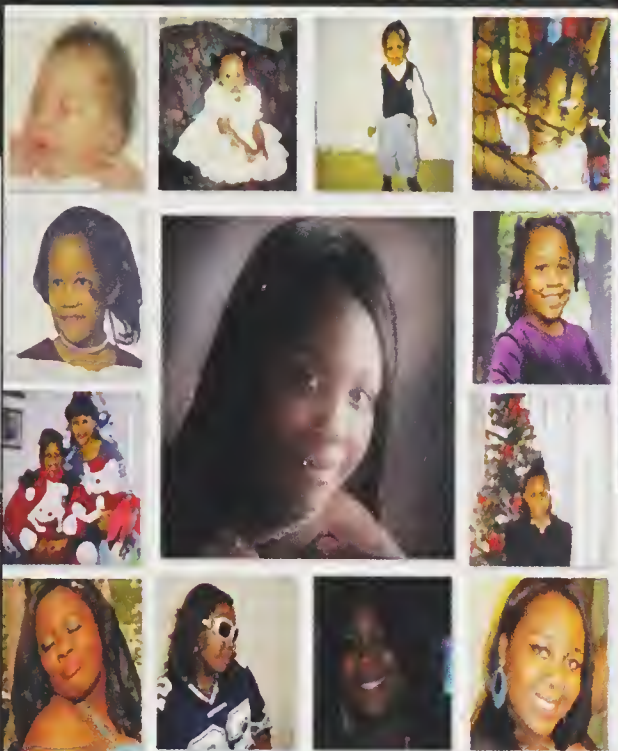

Granddaughter,

There are not enough words that I can say of how proud I am of you and your accomplishments. Your hard work and perseverance lets me know that you are going to go far. You are blessed! My prayers for you have been answered. I will continue to thank God and continue to keep you in my prayers.

Love, Gramps

*I remember the day you entered my world
The doctor said it's a baby girl!
I counted all your fingers and your toes
That's just what you do, every mother knows.*

*Forgive me when I stop and stare
And tears fall from my eyes
Time flew by so quickly
Sure took me by surprise!*

*Now here you stand before me
A respectful, honest young lady
Strong-willed and determined
One day you will feel the same when you become a mother maybe!*

*There are no doubts within my mind
That you'll indeed succeed
Your future holds so much in store
But God is all you need!*

*From Tiffany to Typhani,
So loving, kind and giving
Having you as my daughter,
Is another term for 'living'*

*No matter where life leads you
No matter what you do
I'll always be your biggest fan
And I will be here for you*

*Love you and I am so proud of you,
Mommy*
